North Carolina Umbrella Insurance - because stuff happens.

Getting a North Carolina Umbrella Quote is Easy with Clinard Insurance Group!

Clinard Insurance Group is here to protect you. The more you own, the more you need an umbrella policy. We live in a society where lawsuits are common and judgments can be huge. Personal umbrella policies, or "excess liability insurance," includes coverage for lawsuits that result when someone is injured in your home, on your property, or as a result of an accident involving your auto, boat, recreational vehicles, or snowmobile. While you know what you stand to lose when it comes to protecting your home from a fire loss, with liability, the risk is nearly endless. For this reason it is very important that you purchase as much liability insurance as you can afford. Fortunately, our personal umbrella policies are very inexpensive. Make sure you have the liability insurance limits that you need to keep your assets safe. Call us today and put our experienced and professional agents to work for you right now.

You've worked hard to get where you are, and you have a lot to look out for. You deserve the right policy at the right price. Why not get started today and save with a free North Carolina personal umbrella rate quote? Give us a call today!
