

Having Trouble with Non-Renewals on your North Carolina Mobile Home Insurance? Clinard Insurance Group Can Help!

Mobile homes are a cost effective way for many people to become homeowners. Often times, mobile homes are far less expensive than a regular home but offer benefits similar to owning a single family home. Just because your mobile home costs less than a typical home does not mean it is not your most valuable asset. Protecting your mobile home with an insurance policy from Clinard Insurance Group will give you peace of mind that your losses will be replaced if a disaster strikes.

If you are a new mobile home owner, you may not be aware that mobile homes require a different type of homeowners insurance coverage than permanent homes. Mobile homes need a specialized coverage type because they are transportable and they are constructed differently than ordinary homes.

Clinard Insurance Group has experienced professionals that will shop around to find you the coverage and protection that you want at the best possible price. With Clinard Insurance Group, you will get your own personal agent to help you through the process. We not only want to save you money, but we also want you to fully understand what you are buying and make sure that the policy we provide is the right one for your specific situation.
