

These exclusions represent acts that are not covered by the standard general liability policy. X stands for explosion, C stands for collapse and U stands for Underground. Some underwriters will allow you to add back the coverage for one or more of these exclusions. To learn more re ad our blog here