

Garage Insurance is liability insurance for your company either on your premises or as a result of an accident you cause with a client's vehicle. Garage Insurance does not cover the client's vehicle itself in an accident. Garagekeepers insurance is protection for the clients' vehicles left in your possession. Garagekeepers insurance can be for collision or for comprehensive coverage on those vehicles or both.