

Any company that wants to install, service or repair an irrigation system in North Carolina is required to purchase and maintain a $10,000 surety bond in favor of the state of North Carolina.