

If you purchase equipment coverage for your tools then they will be covered in your truck but there is one important caveat. If the tools are stolen from your truck then there must be signs of forceable entry or the claim will not be paid.